

Teacher Language

A Responsive Classroom Workshop for all PreK-6 Teachers, Para Educators, Special Educators and Administrators

Instructor: Justina Boyden

A teacher's language is a powerful tool that can build children up, model respectful and caring interaction and encourage and support children in their learning. Teacher Language is one of the core strategies of the Responsive Classroom Approach.

Goals for this workshop series:

- ◆ Deepen understanding and knowledge of the philosophy and practice of teacher language
- ◆ Build a community of teachers with a shared knowledge base
- ◆ Build a professional learning community and foster professional dialogue
- ◆ Provide a supportive structure for beginning implementation of teacher language

Dates: March 8, 22, 29
 April 5, 12, 19
 May 3, 10

Location: Fayston Elementary School
Time: 3:15—5:00 PM

Cost: $300.00
Credits: 15 Hours—Recertification Credit

Instructor Qualifications:

Justina Boyden is a certified Responsive Classroom Site Leader through the Northeast Foundation for Children. She has been practicing Responsive Classroom for nearly 10 years. She is in her 15th year of teaching elementary school. Her undergraduate degree and Master's Degree in Special Education are from the University of Vermont.

Register by January 30 @

<http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/FJ9FRG3>